- The Big Bad Fox and Other Tales

Nov. 17 & Nov. 18

Perfect for children this holiday season, from the creators of the Academy Award-nominated Ernest & Celestine comes another hilarious, heartwarming tale of animal misfits. The countryside isn't always as calm and peaceful as it's made out to be, and the animals on this farm are particularly wacky: a fox who mothers a family of chicks, a pig who plays the stork, and a duck who wants to be Santa Claus. This delirious, delightful triptych of interlocking stories harkens back to classic Looney Tunes shorts and slapstick two-reelers. But underneath the gags, the three stories offer a sensitive and beautiful portrayal of family and the anxieties of modern life.

Tickets: $9 (members), $14 (nonmembers), $7.50 (children age 13 and under)

- Senior Afternoon Cinema Series

Year-round

A daytime series of outstanding films programmed to appeal to senior moviegoers. This holiday season, on December 4, folks can enjoy Billy Elliot, a timeless work. The flick follows a talented young boy who is torn between his unlikely talent, love of dance, and the disintegration of his family. This charming movie, which was nominated for three Oscars, evokes both laughter and tears.

Tickets: $9 (members), $14 (nonmembers), $11 (senior nonmembers)

- It's a Wonderful Life* (December 24 & 25 @ 12:00pm) – A holiday classic, Frank Capra directs this film about bank manager George Bailey (James Stewart, Vertigo) who, facing financial ruin and possible jail time, contemplates jumping off a bridge on Christmas Eve. Intervening at the last second is Clarence, a bumbling guardian angel looking to get his wings after 200 years with no such luck. In order to earn them, Clarence must help George see the error of his ways and set him back on the right path.
