Honoring

DAVID BARBER

David Swope Leadership Award

SUSAN TODD & ANDREW YOUNG

Vision Award

ALL PROCEEDS TO BENEFIT OUR FILM, MEDIA
EDUCATION, AND ARTIST SUPPORT PROGRAMS

Each year, the JBFC presents 400 films and 21 curated series that are enriched by conversations with special guests, live performances, and exhibitions. Our media education programs help learners of all ages succeed in a visually, digitally, and globally connected world. Through Creative Culture, we foster a thriving artistic community and champion diverse voices from the region, across the country, and around the world.

David Barber

DAVID SWOPE LEADERSHIP AWARD

It is quite fitting that David Barber will receive the David Swope Leadership Award, named after one of our founding leaders who passed away in 2018; they served on the JBFC board together for many years and were close friends. David Barber is a founding partner and board member of Stone Barns Center for Food and Agriculture, a unique non-profit that focuses on the delicious intersections of agroecology and gastronomy for the purpose of nourishing people sustainably. He is also co-founder/owner of the award-winning Blue Hill restaurants, named after the family farm that continues to operate in the Southern Berkshires. David retired from the JBFC board in 2018 after nine years of exemplary service.

Susan Todd & Andrew Young

VISION AWARD

We are extremely honored to present the Vision Award to Susan Todd and Andrew Young, Emmy Award-winning and Academy Award-nominated directors. Susan and Andy founded Archipelago Films in 1991 with a mission to inform, inspire, and ignite through visual storytelling. Backyard Wilderness, their first 3D Giant Screen/IMAX film, is screening in theaters and film festivals around the world. Combining cutting-edge techniques with the latest visual effects, Backyard Wilderness reveals plants and animals that live around a typical suburban home in rare and breathtaking intimacy. Susan and Andy have been vital and engaged members of the JBFC family since 2001.
